Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame Seeking Nominees for Induction Deadline March 3rd

NEWARK – The Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame (DAHF) is looking for a few good men and women to honor in 2015. Founded in 2000 to commemorate the First State’s aviation achievers, the Hall of Fame is accepting nominations from the general public through March 3rd. After selection of top nominees by the DAHF Board of Trustees, the inductees will be celebrated at an Honors Banquet at U of D’s Clayton Hall on October 10th. To date, 98 individuals have been enshrined, 32 posthumously.

Eligibility includes any aspect of aviation—in the air or on the ground (e.g., aircrew and ground service personnel); design; aerospace manufacturer, maintenance, flight instruction, air traffic control, airport operations, aviation sales, promotion; education; civilian or military.

Selection criteria include:

- Outstanding contribution(s) to the advancement of aviation in Delaware
- Achievement in aviation elsewhere bringing singular credit to the First State
- Gallantry in aviation by a Delawarean in service to the First State and/or Nation

Nominations should be typewritten, single-space, two pages or less. Supporting documents (e.g., awards, citations, news articles, letters of commendation, etc.) are welcome.

Send nominations by March 3, 2015 to the Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame at PO Box 4303, Greenville, DE 19807 or brucelam@udel.edu.
