Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame is Seeking Nominees for Induction at our 22nd Banquet

Deadline April 4, 2022

NEWARK – The Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame (DAHF) is looking for a few good men and women to honor at our 22nd induction ceremony. Founded in 1999 to commemorate the First State’s aviation achievers, the Hall of Fame is accepting nominations from the general public through April 4th. After selection of the top nominees by the DAHF Board of Trustees, the inductees will be celebrated at an Honors Banquet at the Hockessin Fire Company Hall in the fall. To date, 127 individuals have been enshrined.

Eligibility includes any aspect of aviation—in the air or on the ground (e.g., aircrew and ground service personnel); design; aerospace manufacturer, maintenance, flight instruction, air traffic control, airport operations, aviation sales, promotion; education; civilian or military.

Selection criteria include:

- Outstanding contribution(s) to the advancement of aviation in Delaware
- Achievement in aviation elsewhere bringing singular credit to the First State
- Gallantry in aviation by a Delawarean in service to the First State and/or Nation

Nominations should be typewritten, single-space, two pages or less. Copies of supporting documents (e.g., DD214, awards, citations, news articles, letters of commendation, etc.) are welcome. Contact information for both nominator and nominee (Phone, Address and e-mail) MUST BE INCLUDED.

For more information, or to obtain a nomination form, go to www.DAHF.org.

Send nominations by April 4, 2022 to the Delaware Aviation Hall of Fame at PO Box 4303, Greenville, DE 19807 or to Ms. LeSans Alexander at latac719@gmail.com.
