

Celebrating

DELAWARE'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF FLIGHT

"WINGS OVER WAWASET"

The Delaplane...

First Airplane to be Built and Flown in Delaware

THE DELAWARE AVIATION HALL OF FAME

Requests the pleasure of your company at its Honors Banquet at which these airmen will be inducted for outstanding contributions to aviation in the First State and in Service to Country:

Donald M. Clark, Smyrna, DE, C-47 pilot in France during WWII, 27 combat missions, in Delaware reserves was training officer, got civilian pilot ratings and started a crop dusting business.

Edward J. Czarnecki (1922-1955), Wilmington, DE, USAAF 1942, Pacific Theatre became an ACE with 6 victories and one probable, bailed out and rescued by friendly natives, later was survival instructor, flight instructor and investigator.

Theodore C. Freeman (1930-1964), Lewes, DE, U.S. Naval Academy graduate, NASA space program astronaut, 2,000 jet hours, died in plane collision with snow geese at Ellington AFB, Houston.

Stanley P. Lawruk, New Castle, DE, Tech Sergeant, B-17 Flying Fortress flight engineer and mechanic, top turret gunner, shot down on his 24th mission over Germany in 1944, POW.

Daniel M. Rusk, Jr., Wilmington, DE, during WWII in Pacific Theatre served on nine different aircraft carriers, over 100 carrier landings, retired from U.S. Navy after 20 years, joined Atlantic Aviation Co., became VP and General Manager.

Alfred D. Walker, Jr., (1920-1995), Marshallton, DE, Army Air Corps 1942, pilot and instructor heavy bombers, 32 combat missions Pacific Theatre, 540 combat hours, postwar civilian flight instructor in Delaware.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2010

Clayton Hall, University of Delaware, Newark

Reception 5:00 p.m. Dinner 6:30 p.m.

$55 per person
Cash Bar

Dress: Jacket and Tie